LITURGY OF THE WORD

A READING FROM THE BOOK OF GENESIS

12:1-4a

In those days, in their thirst for water, the people grumbled against Moses, saying, “Why did you ever make us leave Egypt? Was it just to have us die here of thirst with our children and our livestock?” So Moses cried out to the LORD, “What shall I do with this people? a little more and they will stone me!” The LORD answered Moses, “Go over there in front of the people, along with some of the elders of Israel, holding in your hand, as you go, the staff with which you struck the river. I will be standing there in front of you on the rock in Horeb. Strike the rock, and the water will flow from it for the people to drink.” This Moses did, in the presence of the elders of Israel.

The place was called Massah and Meribah, because the Israelites quarreled there and tested the LORD, saying, “Is the LORD in our midst or not?”

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (5:00; 7:30; 9:30)

Psalm 95
Krubsack

If to - day you hear his voice,
hard - en not your hearts.

Come, let us sing joyfully to the LORD; let us acclaim the Rock of our salvation.
Let us come into his presence with thanksgiving; let us joyfully sing psalms to him. Refrain

Come, let us bow down in worship; let us kneel before the LORD who made us.
For he is our God, and we are the people he shepherds, the flock he guides. Refrain

Oh, that today you would hear his voice: “Harden not your hearts as at Meribah,
As in the day of Massah in the desert, where your fathers tempted me;
they tested me though they had seen my works.” Refrain

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (11:30; 5:00)

Psalm 95
Tate

If to-day, if to-day you hear his voice, hard - en not your hearts.

A READING FROM THE SECOND LETTER TO TIMOTHY

1:8b-10

Brothers and sisters: Since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have gained access by faith to this grace in which we stand, and we boast in hope of the glory of God. And hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us. For Christ, while we were still helpless, died at the appointed time for the ungodly. Indeed, only with difficulty does one die for a just person, though perhaps for a good person one might even find courage to die. But God proves his love for us in that while we were still sinners Christ died for us.

A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO JOHN 4:5-15, 19-26, 39a, 40-42

Jesus came to a town of Samaria called Sychar, near the plot of land that Jacob had given to his son Joseph. Jacob's well was there. Jesus, tired from his journey, sat down there at the well. It was about noon.

A woman of Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink." His disciples had gone into the town to buy food. The Samaritan woman said to him, "How can you, a Jew, ask me, a Samaritan woman, for a drink?"—For Jews use nothing in common with Samaritans.—Jesus answered and said to her, "If you knew the gift of God and who is saying to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him and he would have given you living water." The woman said to him, "Sir, you do not even have a bucket and the cistern is deep; where then can you get this living water?

Are you greater than our father Jacob, who gave us this cistern and drank from it himself with his children and his flocks?" Jesus answered and said to her, "Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again; but whoever drinks the water I shall give will never thirst; the water I shall give will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life." The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I may not be thirsty or have to keep coming here to draw water.

"I can see that you are a prophet. Our ancestors worshiped on this mountain; but you people say that the place to worship is in Jerusalem." Jesus said to her, "Believe me, woman, the hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. You people worship what you do not understand; we worship what we understand, because salvation is from the Jews.

But the hour is coming, and is now here, when true worshipers will worship the Father in Spirit and truth; and indeed the Father seeks such people to worship him. God is Spirit, and those who worship him must worship in Spirit and truth.” The woman said to him, “I know that the Messiah is coming, the one called the Christ; when he comes, he will tell us everything.” Jesus said to her, “I am he, the one who is speaking with you.” Many of the Samaritans of that town began to believe in him. When the Samaritans came to him, they invited him to stay with them; and he stayed there two days. Many more began to believe in him because of his word, and they said to the woman, “We no longer believe because of your word; for we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this is truly the savior of the world.”

APOSTLES' CREED (Please stand as you are able.)

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Help me.
Help me spread your fragrance wherever I go.
Flood my soul with Your spirit and life.
Penetrate and possess my whole being so utterly that my life may be only a radiance of Yours.
Shine through me and be so in me that ev'ry soul I know will feel Your presence in my soul.
Let them look up and see no longer me, but only You.
Amen.

-Text by Mother Teresa of Calcutta (1910-1997)

God of broken hearts, come and mend our lonely aching,
heal the hurt of separation, join us to your love.
Through the pain of heartache healing, help us know we are complete in what we were and are:
God of broken hearts.

God of broken homes, be a place, secure, inviting,
far from all the noise of fighting, be our place of peace.
Calm the voice, raised in frustration,
with forgiving words come take away the hurt we hold:
God of broken homes.

God of broken dreams, be our hope in time of failure,
pick us up from trial and error, help us still to grow.
Fill our efforts with new patience,
Give us hopeful hearts with grace in all we strive to be:
God of broken dreams.

God of broken faith, quell our doubts and unbelieving,
Help us trust that without seeing, faith can show the way.
Make your Word a light within us,
make us ready to begin a life in your embrace:
God of broken faith.

God of all our prayer, you are there in all our sorrow,
every burden, scar, and struggle: you are all we need.
When our lives are filled with loss,
you ease our pain and bear our crosses;
you are always there:
God of all our prayers.

By night we hasten, in darkness, to seek for the living wa - ter, on-ly our thirst lights us on - wards, on-ly our thirst lights us on-wards. By
