LITURGY OF THE WORD

A READING FROM THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES

2:42-47

They devoted themselves to the teaching of the apostles and to the communal life, to the breaking of bread and to the prayers. Awe came upon everyone, and many wonders and signs were done through the apostles. All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their property and possessions and divide them among all according to each one's need. Every day they devoted themselves to meeting together in the temple area and to breaking bread in their homes. They ate their meals with exultation and sincerity of heart, praising God and enjoying favor with all the people. And every day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.

A READING FROM THE FIRST LETTER OF PETER

1 Peter 1:3-9

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who in his great mercy gave us a new birth to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you who by the power of God are safeguarded through faith, to a salvation that is ready to be revealed in the final time. In this you rejoice, although now for a little while you may have to suffer through various trials, so that the genuineness of your faith, more precious than gold that is perishable even though tested by fire, may prove to be for praise, glory, and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ. Although you have not seen him you love him; even though you do not see him now yet believe in him, you rejoice with an indescribable and glorious joy, as you attain the goal of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.

You believe in me, Thomas, because you have seen me, says the Lord;
blessed are those who have not seen me, but still believe!

A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO JOHN

20:19-31

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, “Peace be with you.” When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, “Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.” And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained.”

Thomas, called Didymus, one of the Twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples said to him, “We have seen the Lord.” But he said to them, “Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nailmarks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe.”

Now a week later his disciples were again inside and Thomas was with them. Jesus came, although the doors were locked, and stood in their midst and said, “Peace be with you.” Then he said to Thomas, “Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe.” Thomas answered and said to him, “My Lord and my God!” Jesus said to him, “Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed.”

Now, Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples that are not written in this book. But these are written that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that through this belief you may have life in his name.

I Will Be With You

Sarah Quartel (b.1953)

The Basilica Schola Cantorum

If there is rain or sunshine, if there is joy or sorrow,
if there are tears or singing, know I will be with you.
If there's love or heartache, if there's light or darkness,
if there are doubts or praises, I will be with you.

And when we meet again, we meet again in another time,
I will be a friend, I will be a friend through the dark.
I'll carry you and hold you in my arms,
safe from harm as we journey on to the morning.

If there is rain or sunshine, if there is joy or sorrow,
if there are tears or singing, know I will be with you.

How can this be? Of all the things I know are true,
I saw them drive the nails into you upon the cross. I felt so lost.
Every dream that ever mattered was hung upon that tree and shattered; just what I feared.
And now I hear they say that you've been raised in glory, but how can I believe this story until I see? Then you came to me.
I swallowed all my earthly pride and put my hands into your side to end all doubt. I'll shout it out:

I do believe! In your rising from the dead, I do believe that you did just what you said: through the power of your love, triumphed over death's deceit. O my Lord and my God, I do believe!

And now I see. Blest are those who have not seen you but never doubt how much they need to know your grace. I'll sing your praise.
Because you live, no more to die, all God's creation's glorified.
You set us free eternally.

And Peace Shall Guard You
Michael John Trotta (b.1982)
The Basilica Schola Cantorum

Peace shall guard you.
In all things, with thanksgiving,
make your needs known and peace shall guard you.
It shall guard you, it shall guard your hearts and guard your minds.
For nothing be anxious, but in all things, and with thanksgiving,
make your needs known.
And peace shall guard you.

Be My Hands and Feet
Tony Alonso

Touch that soothes and heals the hurting, hands that break a loaf of bread; steps that walk beside the weary, bearing burdens in their stead.

*See my hands and feet, said Jesus, love arisen from the grave.
Be my hands and feet, said Jesus, live as ones I died to save.*

Feed the hungry, clothe the naked, visit ones in need of care,
give the homeless warmth and shelter:
Christ will find a welcome there.

Hands that beckon little children, bind a wound, prepare a meal,
feet that rush to share good tidings,
Christ arisen, still reveal.
