BLESSING OF THE LIGHT

Cantor: Let us give thanks to the God of light, always and for every thing.

All:

Cantor:

Praised be the Lord our God, Ruler of the universe, who led our ancestors in the faith by a pillar of cloud by day and a pillar of fire by night, and prepared a lamp for his Anointed.
Light up our darkness, O God, by the light of your Christ.
May his word be a lamp to our feet and a light to our path.
For you are full of loving kindness for your whole creation and we, your creatures, glorify you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and always and forever and ever.

O LORD I call to you; come to me quickly;
hear my voice when I cry to you. Refrain

Set a watch before my mouth, O LORD, and guard the door of my lips.
Let not my heart incline to any evil thing;
Let me not be occupied in wickedness with evil-doers.
But my eyes are turned to you, LORD God;
in you I take refuge, strip me not of my life.

All Bow: Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning,
is now and will be forever. Refrain

Below the refrain are four short musical phrases labeled A, B, C, and D, each consisting of a single measure of music.

Schola: Athirst is my soul for God, | the living God. *
When shall I go | and behold the face of God?

Schola: I went with the throng | and led the procession to the house of God, *
amid loud cries of joy and thanksgiving, | with the multitude keeping festival.

All: Send forth your joy and fidelity; | they shall lead me on * and bring me to your holy mountain, | to your dwelling place.

All: Then I will go into the altar of God, | the God of my gladness and joy; *
then I will give you thanks | upon the harp, O God, my God.

CHORAL MEDITATION

And Peace Shall Guard You

Michael John Trotta (b.1982)

Peace shall guard you.
In all things, with thanksgiving,
make your need know and peace shall guard you.
It shall guard you, it shall guard your hearts and guard your minds.
For nothing be anxious, but in all things,
and with thanksgiving, make your needs know.
And peace shall guard you

-M. J. T., Inspired by Philippians 4:6

CHORAL ANTIPHON AT THE MAGNIFICAT

Mulier qui erat in civitate

The choral antiphon is sung by the Schola before and after the Magnificat.

The woman, who was known in the city as a sinner, brought an alabaster jar of ointment, and, standing near the Lord, she began to wash his feet with her tears and to dry them with her hair.

MAGNIFICAT (Please stand.)

My spir-it ex-ul-ts and re-joic-es, my spir-it ex-ul-ts and re-joic-es, my spir-it ex-ul-ts and re-joic-es in the Lord.

The Sign of the Cross is made at the beginning of the first verse.

My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior.
God has looked with favor on the lowliness of his servant,
Surely, from now on all generations will call me blessed; Refrain

The Mighty One has done great things for me, and Holy is God's name.
God's mercy is for those who adore him from generation to generation. Refrain

God has brought down the powerful from their thrones and lifted up the lowly; the Lord has filled the hungry with good things, and sent the rich away empty. Refrain

God has helped his people, in remembrance of his mercy, according to the promise he made to our ancestors, to Abraham and to his descendants forever. Refrain

All Bow: Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning is now and will be forever. Refrain
