RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 27

The LORD is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear?
The LORD is the stronghold of my life; whom should I dread? Refrain

O LORD, hear my voice when I call; have mercy and answer me.
Of you my heart has spoken, "Seek his face." It is your face, O LORD, that I seek. Refrain

Hide not your face from me. Dismiss not your servant in anger;
you have been my help. Do not abandon or forsake me. Refrain

I believe I shall see the LORD's goodness in the land of the living.
Wait for the LORD; be strong; be stout-hearted, and wait for the LORD! Refrain

MEDITATION

Ave Maria

Franz Schubert (1797-1828)
Bill Bastian, tenor

*Ave Maria, gratia plena, Dominus tecum.
Benedicta tu in mulieribus,
et benedictus fructus ventris tui, Jesus.
Sancta Maria, mater Dei, ora pro nobis peccatoribus nunc et in hora mortis nostrae. Amen.*

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee.
Blessed art thou among women,
and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus.
Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners,
now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

PRAYER OVER THE OFFERINGS (Please stand as you are able.)

Priest: Pray, brothers and sisters, that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father.

Assembly: May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church.

EUCHARISTIC PRAYER

Priest: The Lord be with you.

Assembly: And with your spirit.

Priest: Lift up your hearts.

Assembly: We lift them up to the Lord.

Priest: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

COMMUNION RITE

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Assembly: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Priest: Deliver us Lord, ... as we await the blessed hope and coming of our Savior,
Jesus Christ.

Assembly: For the kingdom, the power, and glory are yours, now and forever.

THE GREETING OF PEACE

Priest: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

Assembly: And with your spirit.

The sharing of the peace has been an integral and valued part of the worship of the Church for centuries in the form of a kiss of peace or handshake.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

Lamb of God, you take a - way the sins of the world, have mer - cy on us.

Last time

Lamb of God, you take a - way the sins of the world, grant us peace.

Music: Mass in A Minor, Frederick W. Strassburger, © 2010, Liturgical Press. All rights reserved. Used with permission under OneLicense.net A-704048.

Please kneel if you are able.

INVITATION TO COMMUNION

Priest: Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb.
Assembly: Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

COMMUNION PROCESSION

*If you are not receiving Communion but would like to receive a blessing,
Please join the procession line and place your arms across your chest to indicate you'd like to receive a blessing.*

MEDITATION

Panis Angelicus

César Franck (1822-1890)
Bill Bastian, tenor

Panis angelicus	The angelic bread
fit panis hominum;	becomes the bread of men;
Dat panis coelicus	The heavenly bread
figuris terminum:	ends all prefigurations:
O res mirabilis!	What wonder!
Manducat Dominum	The Lord is eaten
Pauper, servus et humilis.	by a poor and humble servant.
Te trina Deitas	Triune God,
unaque poscimus:	We beg of you:
Sic nos tu visita,	visit us,
sicut te colimus;	just as we worship you.
Per tuas semitas	By your ways,
duc nos quo tendimus,	lead us where we are heading,
Ad lucem quam inhabitas.	to the light in which you dwell.
Amen.	Amen.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION (Please stand as you are able.)

INVITATION TO PRAYER (Please stand as you are able.)

SONG OF FAREWELL

*In paradisum * deducant te angeli:
In tuo adventu suscipiant te martyres,
Et perducant te in civitatem sanctam Jerusalem.
Chorus angelorum te suscipiat,
Et cum Lazaro quondam paupere

May choirs of angels escort you into paradise:
And at your arrival may the martyrs welcome you;
May they bring you into the holy city, Jerusalem.
May the holy angels welcome you,
And with Lazarus, who lived in poverty,
May you have everlasting rest.

PRAYER OF COMMENDATION

PRAYER OVER THE PEOPLE

Priest: Merciful Lord, ... We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Assembly: Amen.

Priest: Eternal rest grant unto her, O Lord.

Assembly: And let perpetual light shine upon her.

Priest: May she rest in peace.

Assembly: Amen.

Priest: May her soul and the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

Assembly: Amen.

The family wishes to thank all of you for your support and prayers.
All are invited to a reception in the Teresa of Calcutta Hall, lower level of the undercroft.

As you leave the church from the main entrance, you may access the undercroft via the staircase to your left or the elevator to your right.

The interment will take place later today with only the immediate family attending.

Tune: HYMN TO JOY, 8 7 8 7 D; arr. from Ludwig van Beethoven, 1770-1827, by Edward Hodges, 1796-1867.

Lucinda Jean MacGibbon Conroy (Jean), beloved mom and grandma, passed away peacefully at home on Sept. 14, 2023 at the age of 100.

Jean was born November 25, 1922 in Minneapolis to Lucinda (Hedding) and Everett E. MacGibbon, D.D.S. She attended Kenwood Elementary School, University High School, Mills College in California, and the University of Minnesota, graduating in 1943. She was active in the Alpha Gamma Delta sorority and later studied Spanish in Mexico City.

After graduation she moved to New York City to work in the Export Division of The Pillsbury Company. Her strong skills and fluency in Spanish enabled her to assume many work responsibilities for which she received accolades from superiors and peers alike.

At Pillsbury she met William Vincent Conroy, whom she married in 1953. Jean then took on the role of full-time spouse and mother. After starting their family in the New York City area, Jean and Bill returned to Minneapolis in 1963.

Jean's life revolved around her family, friends, faith, and the outdoors. She took quiet pride in her children's accomplishments. She encouraged and supported her family's academic, musical, and athletic pursuits, attending almost every sporting event, play, recital, and academic award ceremony of her children and grandchildren. She shuttled children to school and games, assisted with paper routes, and cheered from cold rinkside snowbanks, all while caring for an ailing husband and later her elderly mother.

She was encouraging and supportive, and her common sense and keen insights were invaluable. Jean was generous, caring, kind to all, and modest. She loved all living things—from flowers to bugs to pets to people. Despite being a young widow and experiencing blindness in the later years of her life, she never complained and approached life with humor and wit.

Jean loved the outdoors and modeled an active lifestyle long before it was common - skating, playing tennis, biking, swimming and rowing on Cullen Lake, and walking each day. She continued walks through her neighborhood well into her 90s, adding walking poles in her later years. She exercised into the last weeks of her life.

An active volunteer who served her community in many ways, Jean was involved in PTAs, State political organizations, served as an election judge, delivered Meals on Wheels into her 80s, and was on its Minneapolis Board for many years.

Jean loved music and played the piano beautifully; her rendition of the Chopin Minute Waltz was a favorite request at family gatherings. She enjoyed opera and symphony orchestras, listening to Metropolitan Opera broadcasts every Saturday and regularly attending various musical performances

* Thank you, Mom. We love you and will carry you in our hearts forever ****
