COLLECT

LITURGY OF THE WORD

A READING FROM THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES

10:25-26, 34-35, 44-48

When Peter entered, Cornelius met him and, falling at his feet, paid him homage. Peter, however, raised him up, saying, “Get up. I myself am also a human being.” Then Peter proceeded to speak and said, “In truth, I see that God shows no partiality. Rather, in every nation whoever fears him and acts uprightly is acceptable to him.”

While Peter was still speaking these things, the Holy Spirit fell upon all who were listening to the word. The circumcised believers who had accompanied Peter were astounded that the gift of the Holy Spirit should have been poured out on the Gentiles also, for they could hear them speaking in tongues and glorifying God. Then Peter responded, “Can anyone withhold the water for baptizing these people, who have received the Holy Spirit even as we have?” He ordered them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ.

A READING FROM THE FIRST LETTER OF SAINT JOHN

John 4:7-10

Beloved, let us love one another, because love is of God; everyone who loves is begotten by God and knows God. Whoever is without love does not know God, for God is love. In this way the love of God was revealed to us: God sent his only Son into the world so that we might have life through him. In this is love: not that we have loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as expiation for our sins.

A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO JOHN

15:9-17

Jesus said to his disciples: “As the Father loves me, so I also love you.

Remain in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father’s commandments and remain in his love.

“I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and your joy might be complete. This is my commandment: love one another as I love you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one’s life for one’s friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. I no longer call you slaves, because a slave does not know what his master is doing. I have called you friends, because I have told you everything I have heard from my Father. It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name he may give you. This I command you: love one another.”

Greater Love Hath No Man

John Ireland (1879-1962)

The Basilica Cathedral Choir

Adriana Pohl, soprano soloist; Francis Kwame Nyamekeh bass soloist

Many waters cannot quench love, neither can the floods drown it. Love is strong as death.
 Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.
 Who his own self bare our sins in his own body of the tree,
 that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness.
 Ye are washed, ye are sanctified, ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus.
 Ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation;
 that ye should show forth the praises of his who hath call you out of darkness into his marvellous light.
 I beseech you brethren, by the mercies of God,
 that you present your bodies, a living sacrifice,
 holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.
