LITURGY OF THE WORD

A READING FROM THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES

2:1-11

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

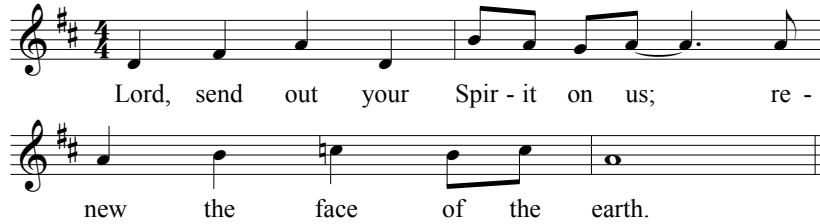

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, “Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God’s deeds of power.”

Psalm 104

Lord, send out your Spir - it on us; re - new the face of the earth.

Bless the LORD, O my soul!
O LORD my God, how great you are!
How may are your works, O LORD!
The earth is full of your creatures. Refrain

You take away their breath, they die,
returning to the dust from which they came.
You send forth your spirit, and they are created,
and you renew the face of the earth. Refrain

May the glory of the LORD last forever!
May the LORD rejoice in his works!
May my thoughts be pleasing to him.
I will rejoice in the LORD. Refrain

A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO JOHN

20:19-23

When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, “Peace be with you.” After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, “Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.” When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained.”

Far beyond the reach of endless sky, far below the depths of endless sea, your love, that has no end, enflames my heart again.

Boundless love, embraces day and night. This grace I can't comprehend, a love that has no end.

When storms arise you are near; when danger comes who shall fear?
You enfold me in your embrace.
The vision of your face, no dream could ever replace.

Boundless love, receive my humble life, receive my soul all my days,
that I may know your ways.

My song shall travel near and far, to claim the Beauty that you are;
words of truth and love are sown;
that you, Most High, alone, are source and cornerstone.

Boundless love was promised as your vow, a promise from ancient time,
that your love would be mine.

Before the mountains were designed, before the heavens were aligned, your sweet voice awakened my name. You found me in my shame,
and called me out of my pain.

THE BASILICA OF SAINT MARY

The life of the community, in days and years, is made up of a long string of events. Individual prayers, daily Masses, Baptisms, First Communions, Confirmations, Confessions, Weddings, and Funerals; drop-in visitors who sit quietly for a moment, a helping hand to someone in need: these are the small and large moments—ordinary, yet extraordinary—that, over time, make up the strong web of faith and history that form the actual Basilica.

Designed by Emmanuel Masqueray in the Beaux Arts style, construction of the church began in 1907. The exterior was completed in 1914; the interior completed in 1926—including the addition of the stained glass windows designed, constructed, and installed by Gaytee Stain Glass Co., a local business. Known as The Pro-Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, the church was granted the title of The Basilica of Saint Mary by Pope Pius XI, February 1, 1926. It is the first Minor Basilica in the United States. The Basilica of Saint Mary was granted the title of Co-Cathedral in 1966.
