“Yea, the darkness is no darkness with thee.” - Psalm 139

INTROIT (5:00; 7:30)

Suscepimus, Deus, misericordiam tuam in medio templi tui.

Secundum nomen tuum, Domine (Deus), ita et laus tua in fines terrae.

Iustitia plena est dextera tua.

Magnus Dominus, et laudabilis nimis, in civitate Dei, in monte sancto eius.

O God, in the midst of your temple we have received your mercy.
As your name, O God, so your praise also extends to the ends of the earth.
Your right hand is filled with justice.

Great is the LORD and greatly to be praised;
in the city of our God, on his sacred mountain.

-Psalm 47: 10-11, 2

ENTRANCE PROCESSION (9:30)

Lu - men ad re - ve - la - ti - o - nem gen - ti - um:

et glo - ri - am ple - bis tu - ae Is - ra - el.

A light to the revelation of the Gentiles, and the glory of Thy people Israel.

Now dismiss your servant, O Lord, according to your word in peace,
because my eyes have seen your salvation,
which you have prepared before the face of all peoples.

Glory to the Father, Son and Holy Ghost, as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, and to the ages of ages. Amen.

-Luke 2:29

LITURGY OF THE WORD

A READING FROM THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET MALACHI

3:1-4

Thus says the LORD GOD: Lo, I am sending my messenger to prepare the way before me; and suddenly there will come to the temple the LORD whom you seek, and the messenger of the covenant whom you desire. Yes, he is coming, says the LORD of hosts. But who will endure the day of his coming? And who can stand when he appears? For he is like the refiner's fire, or like the fuller's lye. He will sit refining and purifying silver, and he will purify the sons of Levi, refining them like gold or like silver that they may offer due sacrifice to the LORD. Then the sacrifice of Judah and Jerusalem will please the LORD, as in the days of old, as in years gone by.

Lector: The word of the Lord.

Assembly: Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (5:00, 7:30, 9:30)

Psalm 24

Who is this king of glo-ry? It is the Lord!

Lift up, O gates, your lintels; reach up, you ancient portals, that the king of glory may come in! Refrain

Who is this king of glory?
The LORD, strong and mighty, the LORD, mighty in battle. Refrain

Lift up, O gates, your lintels;
reach up, you ancient portals, that the king of glory may come in! Refrain

Who is this king of glory?
The LORD of hosts; he is the king of glory. Refrain

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (NOON; 5:30)

Psalm 24

Who is the king of glo - ry? It is the Lord, it is the Lord.

O gates, lift high your heads; grow higher, ancient doors.
Let him enter, the king of glory! Refrain

Who is the king of glory? The LORD, the almighty, the valient;
the LORD, the valient in war. Refrain

O gates, lift high your heads; grow higher, ancient doors.
Let him enter, the king of glory! Refrain

Who is this king of glory? He, the LORD of hosts, he is the king of glory. Refrain

A READING FROM THE LETTER TO THE HEBREWS

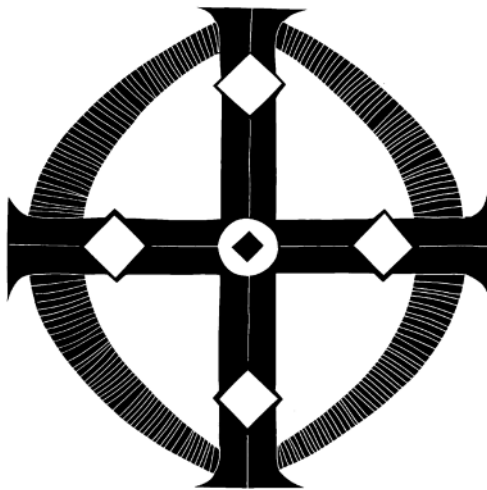

2:14-18

Since the children share in blood and flesh, Jesus likewise shared in them, that through death he might destroy the one who has the power of death, that is, the Devil, and free those who through fear of death had been subject to slavery all their life. Surely he did not help angels but rather the descendants of Abraham; therefore, he had to become like his brothers and sisters in every way, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest before God to expiate the sins of the people. Because he himself was tested through what he suffered, he is able to help those who are being tested.

Lector: The word of the Lord.

Assembly: Thanks be to God.

A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO LUKE

2:22-32

When the days were completed for their purification according to the law of Moses, Mary and Joseph took Jesus up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord, just as it is written in the law of the Lord, Every male that opens the womb shall be consecrated to the Lord, and to offer the sacrifice of a pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons, in accordance with the dictate in the law of the Lord.

Now there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon. This man was righteous and devout, awaiting the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was upon him. It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he should not see death before he had seen the Christ of the Lord. He came in the Spirit into the temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus to perform the custom of the law in regard to him, he took him into his arms and blessed God, saying:

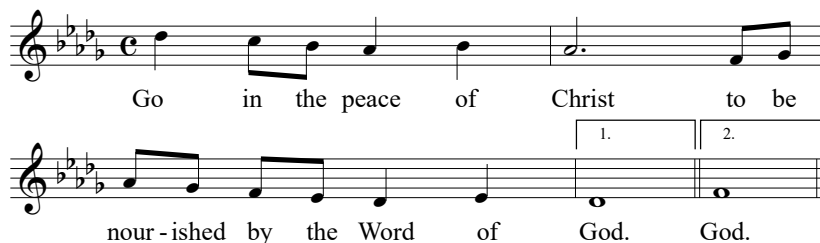

“Now, Master, you may let your servant go in peace, according to your word, for my eyes have seen your salvation, which you prepared in the sight of all the peoples: a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and glory for your people Israel.”

(The acclamation is sung after the gospel.)

DISMISSAL OF THE CATECHUMENS (9:30)

Look within, cleanse your heart Christ will heal your soul.

Setting: Donald Krubsack, © 2010, Liturgical Press. All rights reserved. Used with permission.

NICENE CREED (Please stand as you are able.)

(When reciting the words in bold, please bow your head.)

I BELIEVE IN ONE GOD, THE FATHER ALMIGHTY, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
